Our Yesterdays

This edition of our yesterdays, published by the senior class of 1949, is presented with the sincere wish that all high school pupils will in years to come be able to recall the various activities they have engaged in and the many friends that they had.

We have attempted to take from the hurricane of activities the most important events that will bring many fond memories of school days to all students. If this annual will accomplish this, its publication will be more than justified.

DEDICATION

To a woman whose sparkling sense of humor has lightened our class hours, whose patience has endured even though we have tried it almost to the breaking point, whose efforts in helping us learn English and literature have never ended, we fondly dedicate this book. It gives us as seniors great pleasure to dedicate this book to you, Miss Beth Blue.

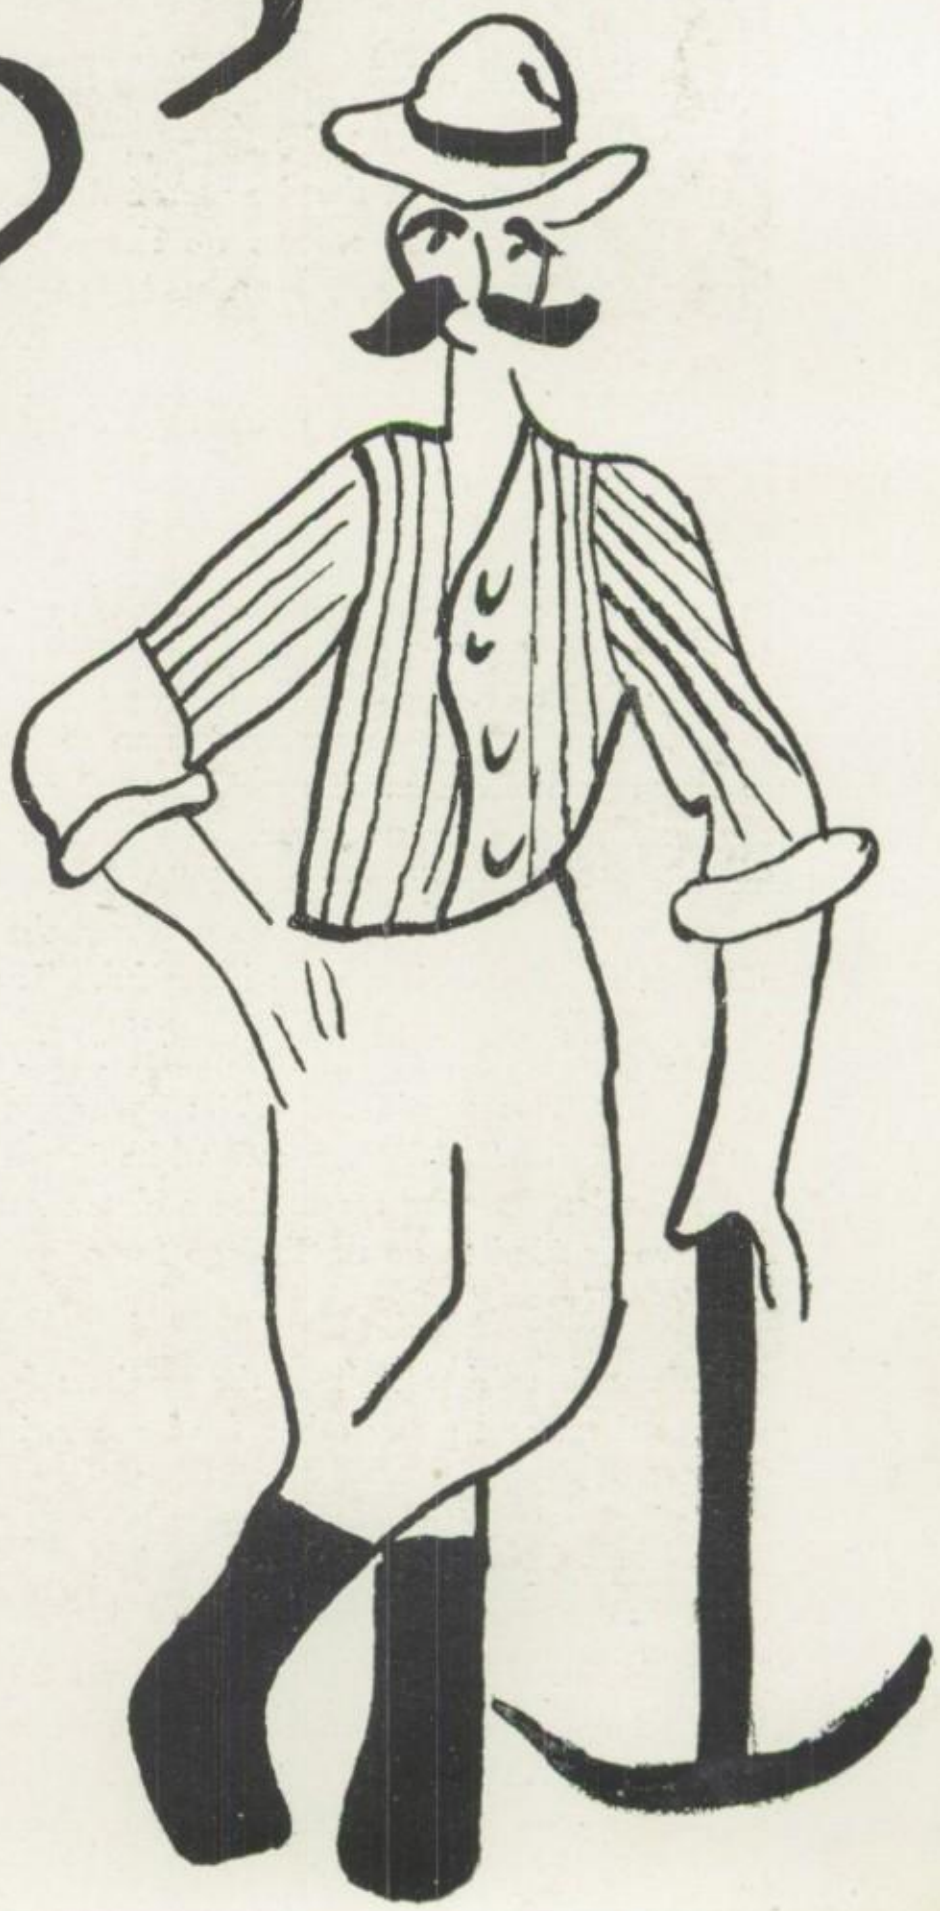
CLASSES



WE'VE DONE IT

In the fall of 1945 the dreams of thirty-five students came true. Yes, we were finally in high school. For our officers we chose, Arlene Habegger, president; Ruth Inniger, vice president; Jack Lehman, secretary; and Joe Wittwer, treasurer. For the girls a big event of the year was the initiation party which the senior girls gave us. We will never forget it. In October we had a class party in the gym. Later in the year we had a skating party at the Sunset skating rink.

The next year we felt quite grown up for we were no longer "greenies" but were now "distinguished" sophomores. Thomas Zehr was our president that year with Marjorie Rawley as vice president; Claudette Nagel, secretary; and Frederick Sprunger, treasurer. We had another class party at the Sunset skating rink.

We were juniors—upper classmen at last! Just one step from the top! For our class officers we chose Jack Lehman as president; Carol Sprunger, vice president; Arlene Habegger, secretary; and Tom Zehr, treasurer. We went to the CCC camp at Bluffton for a Hallowe'en party. For our class play we presented "A Lucky Penny," and with the help of Mss Stone it was a great success. On May 7 we entertained the seniors at the junior-senior reception. Our decorations at the auditorium were beautiful. The food and program were enjoyed by all.

Now we are "Sophisticated Seniors." We chose as our officers Jack Lehman, president; Robert Liechty, vice president; Fritz Sprunger, secretary; and John Eichenberger, treasurer. Our class colors are Kelly green and white in which this annual has been bound. Our class flower is the Golden Rapture rose. For a class motto we have chosen, "Dig for character, not for gold." We have decided to go to Chicago for our class trip. Another event this year was our class play "Two's a Crowd."

We wish to thank all of the teachers for their kindness, patience and help. We will remember them and many other fond memories of our school years as we climb the ladder to success.

CLASS OF '49
BERNE HIGH SCHOOL
BERNE, INDIANA

SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA
JUNE 29, 1967

DISCOVERED GOLD STOP
COME IMMEDIATELY STOP

A 49ER
HARRY ECKROTE JR.
GOVERNOR OF CALIFORNIA

Washington, D. C.

"Operator, I want long distance, please. I would like to speak to Miss Emma Jane Nussbaum at Patterson."

"This is she speaking. Who is calling, please?"

"This is Anna Jane Habegger. I was just going to call and ask if you heard about the gold rush in California."

"No, I didn't."

"I'm leaving in my husband's private plane tomorrow and I thought you might like to come along."

"Sure, that would be a lot of fun."

"Then you can meet me at the airport tomorrow morning."

"That will be fine. Thanks for calling."

Next morning—

"Hi, Emma Jane, are you all set for the big day?"

"I guess so. Do you see who I see coming over there? It's none other than Fritz Sprunger. Why what are you doing here?"

"Hello, girls, I'm a pilot in that transport over there. By the way, Phyllis is a stewardess on one of the other planes now, too."

"How interesting, it's a lot of fun to hear about our classmates, but we must be on our way now. Goodbye."

"This is really a big thrill for me, Anna Jane. This is my first plane ride."

"Oh, it is! This is a common thing for me. By the way, have you heard what any of our classmates have been doing?"

"Yes, I just had a letter today from Sharon. She and Roselyn are now working in a big beauty house in New York. She also mentioned that Claudette is now the secretary to the President of the famous Metropolitan Life Insurance Company."

"That's all very interesting, but it seems that we're at Chicago already and since it's time to eat, we'll land here."

"That's a good idea, but where shall we eat?"

"That 'Dan's Hash House' across the street looks like a nice place. Let's go in. Here comes the proprietor Johnny Eichenberger himself. Hi, Johnny. How is everything since you left Berne?"

"Just fine. Did you know that two of our former classmates who are now married are working for me? They are none other than Jack and Carol who are playing in my orchestra here."

"Oh, yes, the old sweethearts of our class. Well it's time that we start on our way again. Goodbye."

"Say, Emma Jane, did you hear about the new scientific discovery made by Richard Hirschy? He invented a rocket which goes to the sun without human control. I read about it in the paper the other day."

"I think I did hear something about it. Speaking about discoveries reminds me of Ruth's discovery—a husband. I have heard that he is a great singer traveling with an evangelistic party and she has now joined him."

"It sounds like our classmates have all gone at things in a big way, doesn't it? This must be California already. This trip has certainly seemed short. Maybe we had better head for the Governor's mansion to see what the gold rush is all about."

"That's a good idea. My, look at all the people around the capital. Something must really be going on. How strange, but the people all seem to be from the class of '49. This has turned out to be a gold rush of the class of '49. Over there is Delora Graber who is traveling from coast to coast with her husband who is a nationally known evangelist. Arlene Habegger is also happily married but she and Vaughn are finding that a minister's life is not such an easy one. Maggie has been married to her old flame who is now a history professor at a midwestern University. Have you talked to any of the boys in our class, Anna Jane?"

"Yes, and the boys haven't done bad for themselves either. Marvin now owns the largest garage in Los Angeles where he is doing big business, I hear. Somebody just now told me that Palmer Heare has chosen the Army as his career and has done very well, too. He's now a captain. Merlin Lehman told me a little while ago that he has completed his fourth tour across the country as concert violinist. Milton Lehman and Merlin Steiner seem to be having an interesting discussion on farming prospects for this year. They have both been very successful farmers for quite a few years now. David Nussbaum is telling Jumbo Liechty, who is now Vice President of the famous Liechty Construction Company, about the time he got his foot caught in a customer's door when he was selling products from the exclusive Nussbaum, Inc., in downtown Berne. Say, Emma Jane, what's going on in that group over there?"

"Larry Rich is entertaining again by telling some of his tall stories as usual. Larry is almost as famous as Bunyon himself for tall stories. Alice seems to be having trouble with her little brood and Merlie can't seem to do much about it. Marjorie and Areta are right on the spot, though, to diagnos their case. These girls, besides being registered nurses have families of their own. It looks like Paul Weller has turned out to be the big business man in our class. Not only is he in big business, but he also teaches school on the side. I think our entire class has been represented here, hasn't it, Anna Jane?"

"Yes, with the exception of two members who are both abroad. Tom Zehr is now director of a famous choral group which is touring Europe at this time. The other member absent is Donna Mae Sprunger who decided that she liked her name well enough to keep it after she was married. She and her husband are serving as missionaries in South America.

Our class has certainly lived up to its name of 49ers. Each member of our class has really "dug for character rather than for gold."

Heirs to the Throne

We started our junior year with enthusiasm and many new classmates.

The officers that were chosen to guide us through this year were our president, Ronald Townsend; aided by Ronald Krehbiel, vice president; LaMar Winteregg, secretary; Pauline Seesenguth, treasurer.

We had proof of our upper classmen age in November when we received our class rings.

On November 9 we presented for our class play "Off a Pewter Platter" which, under the direction of Miss Stone, was a great success.

We had a class party November 24 in the school gym. Everyone had a wonderful time.

On May 13 we played host to the seniors at the junior-senior reception. Until next year when we return as seniors—

The girls are very happy because we have received many new boys in our class, which were very scarce in former years.

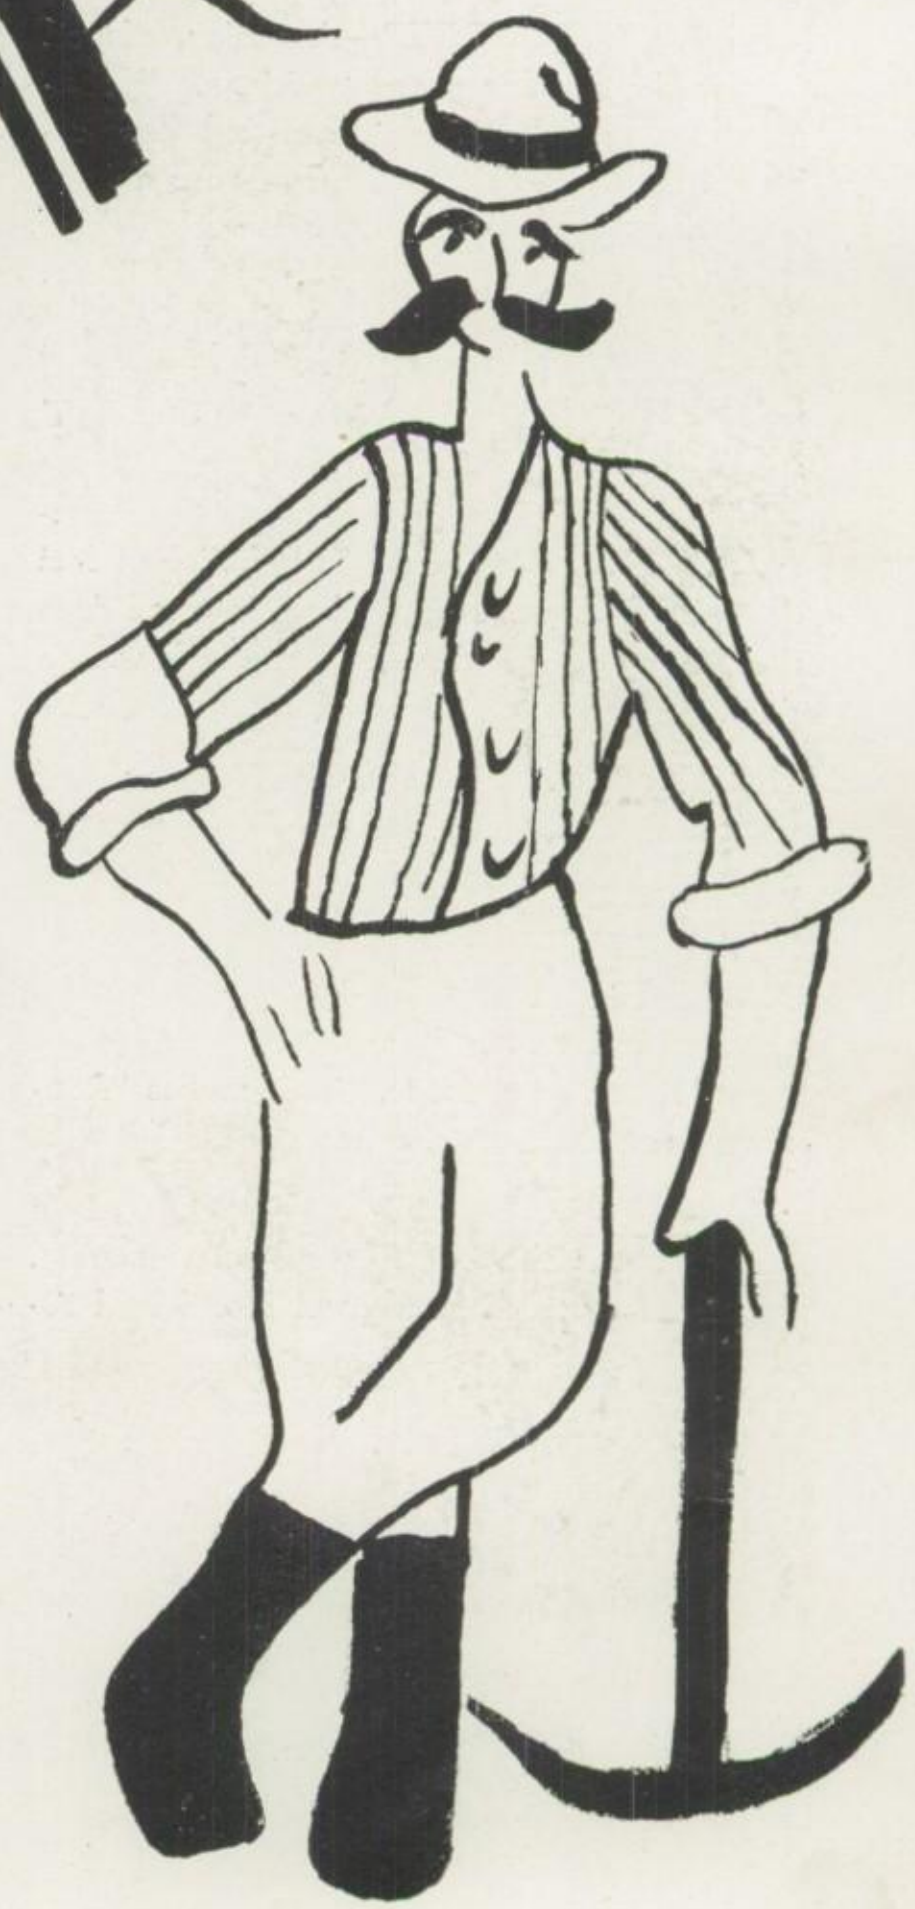
SPORTS



OUR COACH

Coach Ned Shuck, who has been coaching at Berne High School for the last five years, has done a magnificent job. He has taught all of us the ways of good sportsmanship. Shuck has spent many long hours working with the boys in basketball and baseball and has come up with some fine records for Berne High School that will never be forgotten. He deserves more credit than can be given to him. Good luck, Ned, in your future years of coaching.

OUR PLAYERS

JOHN EICHENBERGER—A senior, played one of the regular guard positions. "Johnny" was a good scorer and an excellent rebound man. This was his first year on the varsity.

PAUL WELLER—A senior, played a guard position. Paul was a hard worker, and a good defensive man. This was his second year on the team.

ROBERT LIECHTY—A senior, was the shortest player on the team. "Jumbo" had lots of fight and drive and when inserted into the line-up he usually came through with a goal.

MERLIN STEINER—A senior, was one of the taller players. "Merlie" played as a reserve center and helped a lot on rebounds. He had a lot of fight and determination.

RONALD KREHBIEL—A junior, played forward this year on offense, but was under the back boards on defense. This makes "Ronnie's" third year on the team.

HOWARD HABEGGER—A junior and a forward, was the best jumper on the team. He came through as a good scorer and rebound man. He relies on a one-hand push shot most of the time.

RICHARD AUGSBURGER—A junior, played the center position on offense. "Dick" was good on rebounds and was improving rapidly in scoring.

TED LEHMAN—A junior, played both the forward and guard positions. Ted had a lot of drive and fight and was a good rebounder.

LAMAR WINTEREGG—A junior, played the guard position. Lamar was a hard fighter and scrappy ball player, who never quit or let down at any time.

DUANE LEHMAN—A junior, played the guard position. Duane was a cautious player, but could drive under the basket quickly when the opportunities presented themselves.

TOM ZEHR—A senior and student manager, has had four years' experience at his job which he has done well. "Tommy's" jovial mood helped to keep the team in good spirits.

The Bears participated in the New Year's Tourney and lost both games by close margins.

In the Sectional the Bears defeated the Jefferson Warriors and then were defeated by the Monroe Bearkatz in the semi-finals.

MUSIC

MUSIC

It has been said "Of all the Arts, music is the most universal, the most spontaneous and immediate expression of human emotions."

What a privilege to belong to the Choirs, Band, and Orchestra of our school, where we enjoy practicing together for musical programs to be given as a service to our music loving community.

We owe much of our Music Appreciation to our director Mr. Freeman Burkhalter, who not only is with us to practice, but he lives with us in spirit.

Our musical programs have brought the school and community much closer in spirit and co-operation.

This year quite a number of students entered the Solo and Ensemble Contest. This contest was held in Fort Wayne on February 19. Those receiving first division honors were: Lena Nussbaum, vocal solo; Delora Graber, vocal solo; Tom Zehr, vocal solo; Bill Barrett, vocal solo; Carol Sprunger, piano solo; Ruth Inniger, piano solo; Jane Kay Clauser, piano solo; Marilyn Habegger, piano solo; Joan Neuenschwander, piano solo; Merlin Lehman, violin solo; a string quartet and a girls' trio.

Those who received second division honors were: Glory Ann Lautzenhiser, vocal solo; David Nussbaum, vocal solo; Ardus Beaty, piano solo; James Hedges, piano solo; Ann Stahly, piano solo; Suzanne Yager, piano solo; Jack Nussbaum, Baritone solo; brass quartet, boys' quartet and a woodwind quintet.

All those who received a first division went to Indianapolis on March 26 for the State Contest. We think our school rated very well this year and we are proud of everyone who entered.

YOUTH SINGS

This year our High School A Cappella Choir consists of seventy members.

The choir has received quite a lot of recognition under the able direction of Mr. Freeman Burkhalter. Last summer we were privileged to sing at the Youth for Christ International Conference at Winona Lake.

We also sang at the Home Economics section of the Northeastern Indiana Teachers' Convention.

We have sung at many local events such as: PTA meetings, Farmers' Institute, Youth for Christ meetings, and special services at the Missionary and Reformed Churches.

At Christmas we gave a Christmas Carol concert at the Mennonite Church and also sang over the tower from the church.

Every year we prepare to sing at the contests and also at the Spring School Musical.

Last summer we marched at the Firemen's Convention in Bourbon, Indiana.

This fall we also marched at the Bluffton Street Fair and at the Berne Fall Festival. At the opening of the Festival we marched and maneuvered and then as a special event the Band was given a ride on the merry-go-round while playing another march.

The Band will again be going to contest this year which is to be held in Hartford City, and we are also hoping to go to Auburn for the State Contest.

MONEY MAKERS

The senior class of "49" had charge of the Canteen during the past year. The Canteen operated at the home ball games. Members of the class which were not on the team or in the high school band assisted in the work with Marvin Amstutz as manager. The Canteen also operated during the noon hour with the remaining members taking part. The profit made from the Canteen was used for the class trip. We want to thank you for your patronage during the past year.

"JUNIORS" ON THE STAGE"

The Juniors presented their play, "Off a Pewter Platter" on November 19, 1949.

The Dorns do not need to go to plays, especially comedies; they have one running continuously in their living room! It might be called "Life with Mother," for we see Urania Dorn gaily contaminating her family with contestitis. The disease spreads from perky old grandpa and his typing tests, little brother Buddy and his soap-box derby racer, Father and his mushroom hunting, to Aggie, the maid, with her jingles. Even little sister Toots enters a clay-modelling contest. However, to Debbie, sixteen and social, the big contest is with her irresponsible family, and she is backed up by domineering Aunt Isabel. Debbie vents her anger on every member of her family which she thinks has ruined her social life and her romantic life with popular Stephen Ranes. Debbie even causes Davy, her twin brother to leave home. Debbie learns late, but not too late, that the big contest is the contest of life and the prize is happiness.

SENIOR "DIGNITY"

ON THE STAGE

The senior class presented the play, "Two's A Crowd," April 29, 1949. It was given very well. When Dick, Patricia and Dorothy Maxwell find themselves absent of their mother, Patricia persuades her brother and sister to rent rooms to "Tourists"—thereby easing the family's supposed need for funds. Mamie Beggs, maid, cook, amateur detective and also one of the funniest characters you've ever met, refuses to become involved, but when the house is full of a great assortment of would-be tenants, Mamie involves everyone by suddenly developing a case of measles, which quarantines the whole crowd for two weeks. Although Mamie is sure the mysterious Albert Wilson, his wife and glamorous daughter, Annabelle, are criminals, Annabelle becomes the unwilling means of bringing romance to Dorothy and Michael Street, a handsome, young guest. Finally, Patricia's love-lorn slave, red-headed Willie Peabody, also an unintended guest, stumbles on the key to the Wilson mystery and, just as Patricia decides people are pretty easy to get along with after all, a surprise ending brings the play to an unexpected, riotously funny climax.

RICH ONES

Mr. Spurgeon, the teacher was testing the intelligence of a country child and asked: "The other day I walked 100 yards along a road 25 yards wide. How old do you think I am?

After thinking a moment the little pumpkin replied. "Forty-two."

A little mystified, the teacher asked for an explanation.

"Well," the child replied, "I have a big brother who's half nuts, and he's 21."

"My grandfather lived to be ninety and never used glasses."

Waiter: I'll take it back, sir, and bring you some that is!

* * * *

Mutt: What is the best way to make a coat last?

Jeff: Make the vest and trousers first!

Simpkins: So the king touched my great grandfather on the head with his hand and made him a duke. Can you match that one, Old Thing?

Smitly: Well now, an Indian chief once touched my great-grandfather on the head with a tomahawk. Made him an angel. How's that?

progress report 1949

Today we have the greatest number of telephones in operation in our history. Daily telephone traffic has far surpassed the busiest rush hours of the war years. Our expansion program for 1949 calls for an even greater number of installations than during the record year of 1948. We are doing everything possible to meet the record demand for service—and, in all fairness, will give first attention to those who are on our waiting list.
